

Guide for Authors

Preparation of manuscripts

1. Submit your manuscript in digital format (MS Word file).
2. Use sections to a maximum of three levels (including chapter level). Do not number the sections.
3. Use font Times New Roman 12, single spacing and 2,5 cm margins on all sides.
4. Your paper should not exceed two (2) pages, including all tables, figures and references.

Tables

1. Avoid large tables. The book size will be 17x24 cm. Keep in mind tables should fit this size.
2. Tables should be numbered in Arabic numbers according to their sequence in the text. The text should include reference to all tables.
3. Create tables with MS Word table function.
4. Tables should be clear without reading the text.
5. Column headings should be brief and clear.
6. Vertical lines should not be used to separate columns.
7. Any necessary explanations essential for understanding the table should be given as a footnote at the bottom of the table.

Illustrations

1. All illustrations should be black and white (coloured illustrations can not be accepted).
2. If photographs are necessary, submit original photographs with good contrast and intensity. Sharp and glossy copies are required. Reproductions of photographs already printed can not be accepted.
3. Illustrations should be numbered in Arabic numbers according to their sequence in the text. The text should include reference to all illustrations.
4. Each illustration should have a title. Type this title in the text where the illustration should be placed.
5. The resolution of line drawings should be at least 900 dpi and for pictures and photos at least 300 dpi.

Formulae

1. Formulae should be typewritten, if possible.
2. Subscripts and superscripts should be clear.
3. Give the meaning of all symbols immediately after the equation in which they are first used.
4. Equations should be numbered in Arabic numbers serially at the right-hand side in parentheses.

References

1. All publications cited in the text should be presented in an alphabetical list of references at the end of the manuscript (no numbering).
2. In the text, refer to the author's name (without initials) and year of publication.
3. If reference is made to a publication written by more than two authors, the name of the first author should be followed by "et al.". However, in the list of references all the authors should be mentioned.
4. References cited together in the text should be arranged chronologically. The list of references should be arranged alphabetically by authors' names, and chronologically per author.
5. Use the following system for arranging your references:
 - a. For periodicals:
Pluske, J.R. and I.H. Williams, 1996. Split weaning increases the growth of light piglets during lactation. Austr. J. Agr. Res. 47, 513-523.
 - b. For edited books:
Martin-Rosset, W. and M. Vermorel, 2004. Evaluation and expression of energy allowances and energy value of feeds in the UFC system for the performance horse. In: Juliand, V. and W. Martin-Rosset (editors), Nutrition of the performance horse. Wageningen Academic Publishers, Wageningen, the Netherlands, EAAP Series 111: 29-60.
 - c. For monographs:
Engelen, G.M.A. and A.F.B. van der Poel, 1999. Post-pelleting application of liquid additives. Wageningen Pers, 96 pp.
6. Journal titles should be abbreviated.
7. Work accepted for publication, but not yet published should be referred to as "in press".
8. References concerning unpublished data and "personal communications" should not be cited in the reference list, but may be mentioned in the text.

Footnotes

1. Footnotes should be avoided.
2. If absolutely necessary, they should be numbered in the text, indicated by superscript numbers.
